The Step dame made her Cinders sift
Sure never was her fellow
And from this dirty work she got
The name of Cinderella

It happen'd once upon A time
The Kings Son gave A Ball
And he the Lady's of the town
Invited one and All

In Feathers and in Rich Array
To Court the Sisters went
While Cinderella sat and Cry'd
And did her fate Lament

Her Godmother A Fairy was
Of Cinderella fond
And said you to the Ball shall go
Bring here my dear that wand

A Coach she from A Pompion made
A Coachman from A Rat
Four Mice to four fine Horses changd
Most Beautiful and Fat

From Lizards she six Footmen made
And altering of her Dreſs
To return before the clock struck twelve
She kindly did her Preſs

After the Midnight hour is struck
Says she my Power is gone
Your finery will change to Rags
As sure as you are Born

But as she Danced the clock struck twelve
No finery could She find
And as she out with Terror Flew
One Slipper Left Behind

The Prince he promised he would wed
Whoeer that shoe whould fit
But no one in his Court their foot
Could in the Slipper get

The Page unto the Sisters went
As they was at the Ball
Alone twould Cinderella fit
Which much Surprised them all

Unto her he was Wed
And she forgave her Sisters Pri
